1. New UI for Logimax and LogiWeb that gives a fresh modern look to the whole system.

2. New Advanced User Preference for customer selection only if user matches warehouse.

3. New Customer Maintenance that combines the old maintenance and questionnaire into a new organized screen.

4. Reference Field drop down support for UDC for SQL based views to automatically list/select valid values.

5. New Customer EOP maintenance that allows previous period to reopen and rebilling to be recalculated even if there no charges originally.

6. Improved Customer Dashboard with new look and feel

7. CSV uploads allowing end user to interface deliveries, receipts, and items from spreadsheets.

8. Appointment Dashboard now shows visibility to all key dates/times of the load with percentage complete

9. Deliveries export view now includes all header information

10. New screen to show Picked but still open orders by the stage location

11. New screen showing active replenishments by warehouse & customer

12. Support for Logimation orders to pick by reverse rotation for freshest product first

13. Alternate pallet inventory screen including production and expiration dates

14. New screen for Inventory by Unit Of measure

15. New screen for Historical inventory by Unit Of Measure

16. New screen for Historical inventory by system lot

17. New screen for Historical inventory by Pallet

18. Optional warning when converting Logimation orders to paper pick

19. Point & Click deliveries now allow selection by tracking date

20. Point & Click deliveries now allow grouping by item only for lot tracking customers

21. A new summary section on the Logimation screen shows key totals for current selection

22. Logimation order assignment now allows a "release all" based on the current filter selection

23. Warehouse Transfers now officially built into base with point and click

24. End users can now change the warehouse on a verified receipt with no activity

25. Receiving now allows receiving and verifying quantity of zero pallet/lots instead of deleting these during verification process.

26. Assigning a door on a receipt will now validate if Yard Management module is active.

27. Receiving/Appointment values that are shared with Yard Management are now automatically synced between the two systems.

28. For accurate metrics "Time on Premise" dates/times are now required for appointments.

29. Drop zone in Yard Management can now be selected and ordered by the existing UDC.

30. Notes for given activities in Yard Management are now configurable by UDC.

31. Alternate assignment to point & click for activity in Yard Management assigning now available

32. New filters for Trailer and door now available in Yard Management

33. All linked appointment dates/times are now visible on main trailers screen for Yard management

34. Trailer history now available on Trailer detail screen in Yard Management

35. Trailers are automatically created in Yard Management when assigned when creating or changing an Appointment

36. Images & Documents can now be attached to trailers in Yard Management

37. A new Revenue by tariff will several filters is now available.

38. A new analysis screen has been added to review Recurring Storage Trends for current month compared to past 3 months.

39. A new display alternative titled "Geoplan Strategy" showing the configurations that are setup is now available.

40. A new screen displaying picking zones that are setup is now available.

41. A new screen titled "Velocity Heat Map" has been added that will show the # of visits per location in a graphical display.

42. A new screen titled "Customer Storage Map" to visually display the map by storage product group has been added.

43. A new screen "Work With Zone Pick Items" has been added to show all items currently in assigned pick zones that are eligible to be picked based on existing orders

44. A new "Picking Dashboard" has been added in order to monitor live key picking activity and related information

45. A new "Prime Pick Location Analysis" screen has been added to analyze key information for each item assigned location.

46. The Supervisor Dashboard has been overhauled to focus on more pertinent information as well as a new look and feel

47. The Executive Dashboard has been overhauled for a new look and feel as well as some new data analysis tiles

48. A new detailed Dock To Stock screen with visual graphs analyzing the key times a load enters the facility, unloads, departs, etc.

49. A new detailed Pick To Ship screen with visual graphs analyzing the key times a truck enters the facility, picked, arrive, loaded, and departed.

50. A new "Receiving Times" screen has been added to focus on receiving times, putaway times and compare against goals.

51. A new "Receiving Offload Times" screen has been added to focus on unload start and finish times against a goal

52. An "Open Count Progress" summary screen screen has been added to monitor locations counted as well as detailed count info by locations.

53. A "Cumulative Count Statistics" screen has been added by location showing all locations and how often they have been counted.

54. A "Counted Pallet Results" screen has been added to analyze by pallet all the count information (book vis count, etc) showing the most relevant count for a given pallet.

55. The Tariff Maintenance screen now has a change history log that shows while viewing or changing a specific tariff

56. All Receipt & Delivery attachments(including documents) can be deleted directly from the attachments tab

57. Several pre-defined system queries have been added to be used for internal notifications of expiring tariffs, expiring product, misplaced items, serious storage condition, etc.

58. The "Work With Active Users" screen can end end RF user jobs to free up a license similar to the desktop user.

59. A new screen to create a range of Receipt or Delivery document numbers that can then be used at a later date.

60. A new notification to alert 3rd party bill to addresses instead of the storage customer.